PARLANDO SCHOOL FOR THE ARTS

Summer 2009 Music Camps, Classes and Lessons

The summer session runs from May 31 to August 15, 2009 for a total of 11 weeks. Vacations are important for teachers and students alike, so individual lessons are scheduled accordingly. Because classes are enrollment-based, there are no refunds or credits for students who drop out of group classes. Classes may be cancelled if enrollment does not meet the required minimum, in which case registered students will be offered a comparable class or a refund. Sign up with a friend to avoid cancellations.

Music Lessons

Individual and group lessons continue year round. For all band and orchestra instruments plus piano, harp, guitar, bass, drums, and voice. (Excludes Broadway in Boulder Studios. See the Broadway in Boulder Studios section at the end for special pricing on private voice lessons in musical theater.) For all levels including beginners and for all ages, including adults. New students may begin lessons at any time. Tuition is prorated for new students who begin after the term has begun. Weekly private lessons are 30, 45 or 60 minutes long. Group lessons are also available as "duet" lessons or "trio lessons" when students are matched by level and rate of progress. Contact the Parlando office for group lesson tuition rates.

Summer lessons are scheduled directly with the teacher for a pre-determined number of lessons which must be completed by August 15, 2009. Summer is 11 weeks. The following rates are for 10 lessons.

30 min. individual lesson $300/summer or $108/month
45 min. individual lesson $450/summer or $158/month
60 min. individual lesson $600/summer or $208/month

Parent/Child Duo Lesson

Parents, learn a new instrument alongside your child. Take a joint lesson and get the most out of the music instruction you provide for your family. Your child will be more motivated and committed to learning music as you make music together at home and in lessons. Available on most instruments. Special pricing:

30 minute lesson $360/summer or $128/month
45 minute lesson $540/summer or $188/month
60 minute lesson $720/summer or $248/month

Kids n Keys (ages 4½-9)

Using keyboards and a host of other instruments and teaching tools, Kids N Keys is designed to equip young children to make musical choices. The main goals are to develop aesthetic experiences with music and music making and to provide children with a strong musical foundation in a fun, enjoyable way. Children progress at their own pace through 6 semesters of this curriculum. Children play songs by ear, number, letter and note. Computer programs also help children become familiar with the visuals and sounds related to music literacy. New students should contact the office for placement in the appropriate level. Each class meets once weekly for 45 minutes.

Mixed Ensembles

Rock Band Camp (ages 12-19)

Taught by nationally-touring artist, Holden Young, this camp is for students who play guitar, bass, keyboards and drumset.

The Holden Young Trio (HY3) members Adrian Engfer (bass) and Carl Sorensen (drums) will join Holden to offer students a look at a number of different Rock, Indie, Funk, Punk and Progressive styles. Each day, students will have an opportunity to perform in a mixed instrument band setting as well as an instrument-specific seminar. This gives them the knowledge to communicate their ideas for performance as well as exercises to develop technique in rhythm, improvisation, song writing/arrangement and style. Students will gain the skills necessary for making a rock band.

Introduction to Musical Theater (ages 10 and up)

M-F 9:30a-12:00p

Designed for singers and actors with little to no singing or stage experience, this camp will introduce students of different ages to the world of musical theater.

Students will learn basic terminology, techniques and strategies for preparing for auditions as well as how to turn "butterflies" into grit during auditions and performances. All students graduate this class with a personalized song and monologue list based on ability and type—the beginnings of an audition "book." Students will better understand the world of musical theater and whether it's something they want to pursue further. The camp will culminate in a low-pressure mock audition for each student.

Audition Book and Scene Study Intensive (ages 10 and up) M-F see times below

Designed to help students get ready for fall auditions, this class is based upon years of study and training with Tony Nominated New York coach and composer, Craig Carnelia and modeled after our extremely popular Audition Book and Scene Study classes offered during the school-year.

- Different Music Theatre genres are addressed each day from 20's music to Sondheim to contemporary.
- Each student receives his or her assignment the day before and is required to memorize the material. An in-depth discussion of each genre or style follows every day of coaching.
- Acting techniques include introduction to Viewpoints, The Meisner School and Stanislavsky. Improvisational games will be used and extensive literature is provided for each student for future reference.

All students graduate this class with an understanding of multiple genres and styles as well as how to adapt to each style, a personalized song and monologue list based on ability and type, and four or five fully coached songs/monologues performed in front of their peers. This is a fast moving class but will be individually tailored for each student's ability. Previous singing experience required, and every student performs in every class. All students will participate in a final performance.

Instructors: David Ayers and Angela Gaylor
